INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

COMMITTEE ON PROCUREMENT OF FOREIGN PUBLICATIONS

DRAFT ANNUAL REPORT TO THE NSC ON THE STATUS OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

I. AUTHORITY

The IAC dissolved the Advisory Committee on Foreign Language Publications (ACFLP) on 20 May 1958. Subsequent action by the IAC established the Committee on Procurement of Foreign Publications (PROCIAC) with CIA providing the Chairman. The first meeting of PROCIAC was on 30 June 1958. This report reflects the activities of both Committees.

II. MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS

a. Evaluation Studies. The publications procurement activities of field collectors have been evaluated and a coordinated paper distributed, commenting on the effectiveness and appreciation of such collection. Continuing program.

b. Exchange of Information. The monthly meetings of the Committee provided a forum for the exchange of information concerning procurement matters, resulting in better coordination of requirements and closer cooperation among field collectors.

c. Field Trips. The Chairman and the State member visited 26 posts in Europe and the Middle East, and 12 posts in Africa respectively, to stimulate the procurement efforts and explain the Washington coordination program.
